

Giappichelli publications on Torrossa

Casalini Libri and Giappichelli Editore join forces to publish legal texts in digital format.

We are pleased to announce a new collaboration with Giappichelli Editore for the inclusion on the Torrossa Platform of works by the prestigious legal publishing house.

Founded in 1921, Giappichelli Editore is a leading publisher of academic books in the fields of Law, Economics, Business and Management, specializing in research monographs and reference books. A prolific and high quality output ensures the publication of over 400 new titles every year.

The publishing house has grown considerably since its foundation, while faithfully observing the traditions and practices, outlined by its founder, that have resulted in editorial excellence in its specialized area. The company is one of the few scholarly publishers in its field to remain an entirely Italian enterprise.

In the following months over 700 titles will be made available on Torrossa in PDF format with permissions for copy/paste, print and download. Permanent access is guaranteed and subject to a small annual maintenance fee.

This important addition to the platform complements the existing wealth of electronic titles in Law and Economics, already present on Torrossa.
