

Ecoles Françaises on Torrossa

CASA DE VELÁZQUEZ

Founded in 1929, the Casa de Velázquez is widely recognised for its production of authoritative publications in the fields of Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Arts, Language, Literature, History and Society.

As one of the five overseas Ecoles Françaises under the supervision of the Ministère de l'Enseignement Supérieur et de la Recherche, each year the Casa de Velázquez hosts artists and researchers whose studies contribute to the institution's editorial activity.

From 2013, a selection of 25 works published in 2011 and 2012 in the fields of history, literature and social sciences will be available on Torrossa.

ÉCOLE FRANÇAISE DE ROME

Like Casa de Velázquez, the École française de Rome (EFR) is another of the five 'Ecoles Françaises'. Founded in 1875, the EFR hosts researchers mainly from Italy and France, but also from the Maghreb and the Balkans. Its research focuses on the History, Archeology and Social Sciences of the Mediterranean.

A growing collection of over 200 ebooks is already available on Torrossa along with the three distinguished journals published by the EFR.

AUTHORISATIONS AND MARC RECORDS

Permanent access is offered for all purchased content. License terms grant authorized users permission to copy and paste text and print content. Download is also available for Casa de Velázquez e-books and articles from the three EFR e-journals. Content is accessible in PDF format.
