

Melbourne 2005

*What is the likely shape of the library of the future?
And how do we build collections for it?"*

The Fiesole Collection Development Retreat Series

The Woodward Centre, University of Melbourne School of Law, Melbourne, Australia, April 28-30, 2005

Sponsored By: The Charleston Company and Against the Grain

Hosted By: CAVAL Collaborative Solutions and the University of Melbourne

---

*"An informal meeting of leading library and
information industry
participants devoted to thinking through
and debating the
new world order
in collection
development."*

---

Join us for the seventh in this series of important discussions about the future of libraries, publishing, collections, and scholarship. The Fiesole Retreat Series offers a unique opportunity to interact with a select group of your colleagues in a relaxed and thoughtful setting. Sessions are carefully balanced to assure equal and exciting representation from three communities: the library, the publisher, and the vendor, with viewpoints from the U.S., the U.K., Continental Europe, Australia, Asia and other countries.

Melbourne 2005 is set at The Woodward Conference Centre, the premier conference facility located on the top floor of the University of Melbourne Law Building in University Square. It offers commanding views of both the University and the city of Melbourne. The conference venue is located next to the famous eating areas of Lygon Street and most conveniently via a short tram ride to all the city entertainments and unique local venues such as the Queen Victoria Markets, the National Gallery of Victoria, the Melbourne Cricket Ground and the Melbourne Botanical Gardens.

This year's theme is "Publishing, Collecting, and Collaborating Globally: Crossing Present and Future Boundaries."

We have booked a block of rooms at the Rydges Carlton, the hotel in closest proximity to the conference centre. However, a wide variety of other hotels are also very conveniently located to this conference venue. Information for three of these hotels is listed below. Please make all hotel reservations directly with the hotel of your choosing.
